Dear Sir:

Last month when reviewing some old probate files in the Stafford County Probate Court, Dover, N.H., I found the will of Jennie I. Farrington. She left her estate to her mother for her benefit during her natural life; then to Delia Blake of Rochester with the same provision; and then to the City of Rochester for an addition to the Library to be called the Walter F. and Jennie I. Farrington Library annex.

This will was probated on July 20, 1895. There was no accounting, however the total estate was only a little over $3,000.00.

Is there a record of benefactors of the library that would be available which would indicate if anything was received from this estate? I do not expect you to do a lot of research to determine this.

I enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience in answering. Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,

Donald G. Farrington
