Dear Madam or Sir,

You are a beneficiary under the Amended and Restated Trust Agreement of Barbara R. King, in the amount of $5,000. Mrs. King died on August 16, 2011. Keith K. Anderson is her successor Trustee. On his behalf I enclose copies of the applicable provisions of the Trust Agreement and a check in payment of your bequest.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Dodds, III

Enclosure
cc: Keith K. Anderson

the Administrative Trust shall be distributed currently to the beneficiaries of the trust estate or accumulated and distributed as of the close of such period. The Trustee may direct the Grantor's personal representative to charge expenses of administration of the Grantor's estate against income or principal of the residue of the Grantor's estate, and may charge such expenses against income of the trust estate of any trust created at or by reason of the Grantor's death in such equal or unequal amounts as the Trustee may determine, only to the extent such charges do not reduce any federal estate tax marital or charitable deductions available to the Grantor's estate. All tangible personal property of the Grantor which is a part of the trust estate shall be disposed of in accordance with any provisions regarding the same set forth in the Grantor's Will, the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference, or if none by the terms of this Trust Agreement. In the event and to the extent the Grantor's personal representative does not have sufficient assets to pay the Grantor's debts, funeral expenses, expenses of administration of the Grantor's estate and any specific devises under the Grantor's Will, the Trustee may make such payments for the account of the Grantor's personal representative or may augment the Grantor's estate so that the Grantor's personal representative may make such payments. Subject to the payment or provision for payment of death taxes in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 5.3, the Trustee shall allocate and distribute the trust estate remaining as hereafter provided.

5.2 Specific Distributions. The Trustee shall make the following distributions:

5.2.1 Institutions. Because of the Grantor's belief in the future of the printed book, the Trustee shall make cash distributions in the amount of $5,000 to each of the following institutions for improvement of their book collections, if they are active institutions at the time of the Grantor's death.

The Rochester Public Library, Rochester, New Hampshire

The Patten Free Library, Bath, Maine

The Peaks Island Branch of the Portland Public Library, Maine

Southside Branch of the Santa Fe, New Mexico Public Library

5.2.2 Organizations. The Trustee shall make cash distributions in the amount of $5,000 to each the following organizations if they are active organizations at the time of the Grantor's death:

St. Elizabeth's Shelter for the Homeless, Santa Fe, New Mexico

Santa Fe Habitat for Humanity

Santa Fe Animal Shelter and Humane Society

5.2.3 Individuals. The Trustee shall distribute $5,000 to Bryce McCrea, Apache Junction, Arizona if he survives the Grantor and $5,000 to Randall McCrea, Georgetown, Texas, if he survives the Grantor.

5.2.4 Division and Distribution of Remaining Trust Estate. After the specific distributions have been made according to the prior provisions of this Paragraph, the Trustee shall liquidate the remaining assets of the trust estate subject to the payment of death taxes in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 3, (the "remaining trust estate") and the Trustee shall divide the proceeds to create shares of substantially equal
