Time allotted N/A Agenda topic	Presentation of new Kiosk Presenter	Mr. Scopel & Emily Reynolds
------------------------------------	---------------------------------------	-----------------------------

Mr. Scopel said a few words about his vision and the history of the Dominicus Hanson Park. The collaborative effort of his student Emily Reynolds, Mr. Donnelly and his students as well as the graphic arts teach and his students who all worked together to make this interpretive trail a success. Emily then spoke about her work including the design of the kiosk, research and implementation of the QR code(s) stationed throughout the outer loop of the trail. The trustees presented Emily with a City of Rochester book as a thank you, Emily and Rob Pallas cut the ribbon and the group walked the .77-mile loop stopping at each of the 8 stations while various people used their smart phones to scan the QR code and read about the points of interest within the pine forest. We ended the event back at the beginning of the trail by the Kiosk and took some photos.
